Under investigation

The Sheriff declines to disclose to you at this time any of the record responsive to your request because the case is currently being investigated. We believe that releasing the record would compromise the pending investigation. Accordingly, we decline to disclose the record or any information extracted from the record pursuant to Government Code sections 6254(f), 6254(k) and Evidence Code section 1040 (official information privilege).

Case being reviewed by DA

The Sheriff declines to disclose to you at this time any of the record responsive to your request because the case is currently being reviewed by the District Attorney. We believe that releasing the record would compromise any criminal prosecution of this matter. Accordingly, we decline to disclose the record or any information extracted from the record pursuant to Government Code sections 6254(f), 6254(k) and Evidence Code section 1040 (official information privilege).

Request contemporaneous/investigatory

The Sheriff declines to disclose to you any of the record responsive to your request or any information extracted from the record because all the responsive record and information is exempt from public disclosure under the Public Records Act. The record itself is a law enforcement investigatory record that is categorically exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code section 6254(f). Williams v. Superior Court, 5 Cal. 4th 337 (1993). Government Code section 6254(f) (2) requires disclosure of selected information extracted from contemporaneous records of current police activities. County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court, 18 Cal. App. 4th 588, 595-601 (1993). All such information may be viewed at www.ocsd.org, under e-services. Click on the "Sheriff blotter" then choose a city.

Request non-contemporaneous/investigatory

The Sheriff declines to disclose to you any of the record responsive to your request because all the responsive record is exempt from public disclosure under the Public Records Act. The record itself is a law enforcement investigatory record that is categorically exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code section 6254(f). Williams v. Superior Court, 5 Cal. 4th 337 (1993). Government Code section 6254(f) (2) requires disclosure of selected information extracted from contemporaneous records of current police activities. County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court, 18 Cal. App. 4th 588, 595-601 (1993). We do not consider this report to be a "contemporaneous record" since the date of occurrence is over 30 days ago.

Welfare and Institutions Code section 827/Juvenile Court Order

The Sheriff declines to disclose to you any of the record responsive to your request because the record involves juveniles and may not be released without approval from the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court. California Constitution, article I, section 1; Government Code sections 6254(k), 6255; Welfare and Institutions Code section 827 and Order of the Orange County Juvenile Court dated 1/28/97 "Policy: Confidentiality and Release of Information".

Privacy

The alleged victim, suspect, informant or witness in the record has a right to privacy to the information contained within the record, pursuant to:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> California Constitution, Article I, section 1 | <input type="checkbox"/> Penal Code section 293 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Government Code section 6254 (c) | <input type="checkbox"/> Penal Code section 13300 |

| | <input type="checkbox"/> Welfare and Institutions Code section 15633 |

The Sheriff is prohibited by Penal Code section 11167.5 from releasing the record

Other

- If the record you requested resulted in a prosecution, you may wish to examine and attempt to obtain copies of the applicable court records.
- Please note that even though information and records about non-contemporaneous law enforcement investigations are exempt from disclosure to the public, all or parts of the records you requested may be available by subpoena to interested parties in a civil suit.

Redacted:

Redacted record

Pursuant to Government Code sections 6254 (f), 6254(k) and 6255 and the right to privacy under Article I, section 1 of the Californian Constitution, portions of the enclosed records have been redacted for this case number.

Record released to alleged victim with redactions

Pursuant to Government Code section 6254(f), you, as a victim, are entitled to a copy of the record relating to the alleged crime against you. We have provided this record; however, we have redacted information pertaining to another involved party. We believe the redactions are necessary pursuant to Government Code section 6254(k) and 6255; California Constitution, Article I, section 1 (the right of privacy); Evidence Code section 1040 (privilege for official information); Government Code section 6254(f) (protection of the safety of a witness or other involved person).

Redacted pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 827/Juvenile Court Order

Pursuant to Government Code sections 6254 (f), 6254(k), 6255; the right to privacy under Article I, section 1 of the California Constitution; Welfare and Institutions Code section 827; and Order of the Orange County Juvenile Court dated 1/28/97 "Policy: Confidentiality and Release of Information", portions of the enclosed records have been redacted.

Per CPC 293 – Victim Confidentiality

Other

In the event the Sheriff is required to disclose to you at any time all or parts of the responsive record or information contained in the record, the Sheriff reserves the right to claim at that time all applicable exemptions from public disclosure.
