Investigators look to identify assault suspect

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Ca. (July 22, 2020) – Sheriff's Department investigators are looking to identify a man suspected of assaulting and attempting to sexually assault a 48-year-old female victim.

At approximately 10:45 p.m. on Sunday, July 19, the female victim reported being assaulted by an unknown male suspect in the parking lot of a business in the 27000 block of Calle Arroyo in the city of San Juan Capistrano.

The suspect grabbed the victim, dragged her near a dumpster and attempted to sexually assault her. The female victim fought back and was able to escape.

The suspect is described as a male Hispanic in his mid-40s, 5'11", 200 pounds with a mustache and a goatee. He was wearing a blue Dodgers hat, black T-shirt and khaki pants.

If you have information or may be able to identify the suspect, contact the Special Victims Detail at 714-647-7419. Anonymous information may be provided through Orange County Crime Stoppers at 1-855-TIP-OCCS.
